

Dear Sirs,

My friend who has a small ISP feels like this change would serve as a way to effectively end his business. Please consider the fact that our large businesses started as small businesses and do not do anything that would choke them out of existence.

Thank you,

M. Waters